Consider the homonuclear COSY NMR spectrum of each of the esters below. Show the correlations in the COSY spectrum and use these and the fact that signal “a” is due to the methylene next to the oxygen in each case to assign peaks b, c, d, and e to hydrogens in the structure. The correlations are the teardrop things (half of a p-orbital), not the lower-case deltas.